Mr. Robert DuBose
Director, Office of Global Issues
Bureau of Intelligence and Research
Department of State
Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Mr. DuBose:

We are pleased that you have accepted our invitation to participate in a panel discussion as part of a course we are conducting for Senior Intelligence Service Officers newly promoted to SIS-01 (SES-01 equivalent). The session is scheduled for 28 February, from 1:30 to 4:30 P. M. and will consider Community issues within the context of the major theme of the seminar, a contemporary focus on CIA and Intelligence Community efforts to counter terrorism.

Joining you on the panel will be representatives from the Defense Intelligence Agency, the FBI, and the Agency. The session is informal. All remarks are off the record and, to encourage direct and frank exchange, the entire proceeding is nonattributable. The Course participants all hold Top Secret and Special Clearances.

The Course will be held at [redacted]

[redacted] Driving instructions, therefore, will be mailed separately.

If you should have further questions, feel free to call [redacted]

[redacted] Thank you for participating.

Sincerely,

[redacted]
Director of Training and Education
